FAMILY AND DEPENDENCY MEDIATION

Filed and Recorded in Official Records of
MONROE COUNTY KEVIN MADOK, CPA

WHEREAS, mediation is a process whereby a neutral third person acts to encourage and facilitate resolution of litigant disputes prior to judicial determination in an informal, non-adversarial manner with the goal of helping the parties reach a mutually acceptable agreement. The mediation process has proven to be a judicial process that improves the efficiency and proper administration of justice for families and children;

WHEREAS, Chapter 44, Florida Statutes, and Rule 12.740, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure provide for mediation of contested family actions, except those expressly excluded by rule or law;

WHEREAS, Administrative Order AOSC09-19, Supreme Court of Florida, sets the Standards of Operation and Best Practices for Alternative Dispute Resolution Services in Florida's Trial Courts; and

WHEREAS, Rule 2.215(b)(3), Florida Rules of Judicial Administration directs the chief judge to develop an administrative plan for efficient and proper administration of all courts within the circuit, and accordingly finds it necessary and appropriate to establish an administrative order related to a circuit-wide family and dependency mediation program; it is therefore:

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the following procedures concerning a circuit-wide family and dependency mediation program shall be followed in the 16th Judicial Circuit:

A. REFERRAL TO MEDIATION

1. Any filed cases involving disputed family matters and issues will be referred to mediation. For purposes of this order, the term "family matters and issues" means disputed issues between married and unmarried parties before and after judgments. Such matters include, but are not limited to, equitable distribution of property, spousal support, child support, parental responsibility, timesharing, juvenile dependency, and domestic violence. Mediation of matters between parties with restraining orders or other forms of injunctions resulting from domestic violence is addressed in section 3 below.

2. Referral to mediation shall be consistent with Chapter 44, Florida Statutes, state court procedural rules, and other policies or reports that may be adopted.
3. The issuance of a Domestic Violence (DV) Injunction shall not be mediated. Mediation of the ancillary issues of DV Injunction cases after judicial determinations may be mediated, but shall only be conducted by an experienced certified family mediator with an understanding of domestic violence dynamics.
4. Orders of Referral to Family Mediation shall contain, in a prominent place, the statutory language that “upon motion or request of a party, a court shall not refer any case to mediation if it finds there has been a history of domestic violence that would compromise the mediation process.” The motion or request must be submitted in writing to the presiding judge and a copy sent to the Mediation Coordinator within ten (10) days of receipt of the Order of Referral to Mediation.
5. All Orders of Referral to Mediation shall contain, in a prominent place, a Notice to Persons with Disabilities in accordance with Rule 2.540, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration. Rule 2.540 requires that all notices of court proceedings held in a public facility and all process compelling appearance at such proceedings include the statement:

If you are a person with a disability who needs any accommodation in order to participate in this proceeding, you are entitled, at no cost to you, to the provision of certain assistance. Please contact Court Administration, 302 Fleming Street, Key West, FL 33040, telephone number 305-292-3423, within two (2) working days of your receipt of this Order of Referral to Mediation; if you are hearing or voice impaired, call 711.
6. Referrals to family mediation shall be made as soon as possible after an answer has been filed and/or financial affidavits have been filed and/or exchanged, and prior to the filing of the thirty (30) day notice of trial.

- a) Prior to family mediation, the case shall be screened for appropriateness for mediation;
- b) If either party seeks emergency or temporary relief, the court shall determine if the case should be expedited. If so, mediation shall be available within one week of the referral or the case shall be heard by the court;
- c) The referring judge or magistrate shall review the file as part of the case management process to determine whether the case is ready for mediation.
- d) Cases that are re-opened via a Supplemental Petition or Motion Modification shall be referred as soon as possible after service is obtained.

7. All dependency cases, including Termination of Parental Rights, shall be screened by the court and ordered to mediation as appropriate.

b) In Termination of Parental Rights cases, mediation referrals shall be made at the Advisory Hearing and the mediation conference shall be held within thirty (30) days.

If one or both parties fail to file financial affidavits that indicate at the time of referral, the fees will be assessed at $120 per party.

- a) For purposes of assessing fees pursuant to Section 44.108(2), Florida Statutes, the definition of a family mediation session is no more than three (3) hours. Therefore, family mediation sessions are scheduled for three (3) hours. One (1) session will be initially scheduled per case, unless both parties agree otherwise. 5. If one party fails to appear at a scheduled mediation session, the party who appears shall pay the assessed fee, and the party who fails to appear shall be assessed for the missed session and both parties' mediation fees if another session is ordered by the court or agreed to by the parties.

6. If a party fails to pay the assessed mediation fee, the mediation program or designee may obtain a judgment lien against the defaulting party for the fees.

D. RESCHEDULING AND CANCELLATIONS

1. If the parties agree to reschedule a family mediation, they must file a stipulation with the Clerk of Court and notify the Mediation Program three (3) full business days prior to the scheduled mediation date. Failure to do so will result in a penalty fee equal to the amount of the session fee for each party.

2. If the parties do not agree to reschedule, the party requesting to reschedule must file the appropriate paperwork with the court. The mediation will not be rescheduled without an order from the court. The case must be rescheduled three (3) full business days prior to the scheduled mediation date, or the requesting party must pay a penalty fee equal to the total amount of the session fee.

3. Dependency mediations shall not be rescheduled or canceled unless the requesting party files the proper paperwork and the court issues an order. It is the responsibility of the party requesting to cancel or reschedule the mediation to select an alternate date that is mutually agreeable to all parties. The Mediation Coordinator must be notified immediately of the date selected.
